Bread for the World Offering of Letters • Today • Narthex • Today we write to urge Congress to pass legislation for increased funding for the Summer EBT program. This program provides families additional with funding through the SNAP/TANF programs. For children, summer is the hungriest time of the year, and this critically important issue impacts children both here in Perry Township and throughout the nation. • Advocate for hungry families by writing at the tables in the narthex – all necessary materials are provided. Writing your own letter is most impactful, but adding a personal statement demonstrates an extra level of commitment to our elected leaders, and the letter will often be set aside for the Senator or Representative to read. • New for 2020: Write letters on Wednesday evenings during Lent (March 4 – April 1) at the table next to the Breadbox or between worship services on Sundays March 8, 15 or 23. You can also download letters online, write at home, and return the letters to RLC. Visit tinyurl.com/2020-RLC-OL to get started. • Contact Sara Gasiorowski, pjsmgaz@att.net

Open Discussion on Mental Health • Today at 9:30 a.m. • Resurrection Hall • God wants us each to experience wholeness of mind as well as body and spirit, but mental health is a topic many hesitate to discuss. We want to know what questions and concerns are important to you. RLC member and licensed therapist, Abram Sinn, leads an open discussion about mental and emotional well-being. Suggested resources also provided. • Contact Pastor Ryan, prryan@rlcindy.org

Illustrated Lent Devotion books • Now through Sunday, April 12 • Narthex • Illustrated Lent devotion books are available in the narthex for households and families to take home and use during the Lenten season. The devotions include Scripture readings, reflections, and coloring activities to guide prayer time from Ash Wednesday to Holy Week. • Contact Victoria Hoppes, victoria@rlcindy.org

New! Lutherans and the Political Sphere • Sundays March 8 and 15 at 9:30 a.m. • Resurrection Hall • What is the place of Lutheran Christians in politics? This is the focus of a two-week study and discussion during the Learning Hour led by Pastor Mitch. We take a look at scripture and the teachings of Martin Luther and engage in discussion as we wrestle with the role Christians are called to play in politics. • Contact Pastor Mitch, prmitch@rlcindy.org

New! Stations of the Cross • Now through Sunday, April 12 • Our sanctuary is home to the Stations of the Cross. You are invited to pray the Stations of the Cross and enter into the story of Jesus' passion carrying his cross to Calvary. There is a special guidebook available in the narthex which provides a scripture verse and prayer for each station as well as questions and promptings for individual reflection and prayer. The sanctuary is open throughout the Lenten season whenever the church is open, allowing individuals to pray in solitude without time constraints, either starting from the first station and moving chronologically, or simply choosing to linger at a select few. • Contact church office, parishadmin@rlcindy.org

New! Nursery Attendants • RLC is seeking several adults (18+ years) to serve as paid substitute nursery attendants. Substitutes provide age-appropriate care for children from birth to four years of age. Substitutes typically serve during one worship service and/or Learning Hour on Sunday mornings; additional work opportunities may be provided to subs during special services and events. • Interested? Contact Victoria Hoppes for more details and an application. • Contact Victoria Hoppes, victoria@rlcindy.org
